

SOCIAL SKILLS GROUP FOR ADOLESCENTS

Does your teen have difficulty making and maintaining friends?
Has your teen been described as shy or slow to warm up to people?
Has your child been diagnosed with AD/HD?

SOME ADOLESCENTS NEED A LITTLE HELP LEARNING SOCIAL SKILLS!

This group is designed to:

- Help teens develop the social skills necessary to make friends.
- Help teens develop the social skills necessary to maintain friendships.
- Help teens develop self-confidence and self-esteem.
- Help teens learn to enjoy their friendships.
- Help teens get along better with other teens.
- Help teens get along better during classroom activities.
- Help teens learn conflict resolution and problem solving skills.

Through a series of fun activities,
in a supportive environment,
we help teens learn social skills.
