

Back to School Checklist for Parents

- Make sure your child has all required immunizations
- Schedule a physical exam for your child if needed to participate in school activities
- Get your child's vision checked before school starts if he or she is due for an exam
- * Schedule your child's School Success Screening ***

The SSS is a quick, 45-minute screening designed to identify any red flags for current difficulties that could negatively affect school performance or make school more challenging for your child this upcoming school year. Also assesses strengths!

Cognitive/Academic   Social   Emotional   Developmental

Identifies age-based strengths and red flags for attention, learning, studying, approach to problem solving, decision-making, ability to make and maintain friendships, social skills, social awareness, self-esteem, general anxiety, school/test anxiety, social anxiety, mood, depression, overall mental health, and basic physical abilities and fitness.

A great way to ensure your child is ready for the new school year!
